Open to: Students and Graduates
Disciplines Required: Open to applications for all degree subjects (i.e. any discipline)
How many vacancies: ~50

Nature of Employment: Summer Work

Job Description:
Centre for Talented Youth, Ireland (CTYI) provides enrichment courses for students with high academic ability, as well as university style courses for students of all ages and abilities. Each summer CTYI recruits university students and graduates to work as Residential and Teaching Assistants on our secondary and primary school summer programmes in DCU and around the country.

Residential Assistants look after small groups of students, organise daily activities and supervise students when they're not in class. This position includes room and board in DCU for the duration of employment.

Teaching Assistants aid students in both our primary and secondary programmes, as they learn about university level subjects like Law, Behavioural Psychology and Medicine.

All details of the positions, including salary and dates, can be found on the application form.
