Subject choice

- Careers Information
- Required subjects for specific careers?
- Research what is involved in subjects
- Key Message – follow your interests

1st Year ?
2nd Year

Irish Requirement?
(Primary Teaching)

TIPS FOR SUBJECT CHOICE

GOOD TO KNOW....

- Graduate Recruiters actively engage with us seeking to recruit Maynooth University students/graduates
- For many roles employers are more interested in your grades and experience than your subjects
- Recruitment cycles begin early in final year so it is never too early to start using your Careers Service
- Getting experience in the years before final year is very useful...(it looks good on your CV and helps you clarify what you enjoy doing).

WHEN UNSURE ... FOLLOW YOUR INTERESTS

Careers Interest Tests

Careers Interest Tests, Psychometric Tests & Self-Assessment Tests: use the Assessment Tests below to identify your characteristics and to generate career options that match.

Prospects Planner

As a job exploration tool, Prospects Planner aims to help you to:

- Identify what you want out of a job.
- Generate and evaluate job ideas.
- Identify what you can offer to the job/employer.
- Compare options and identify the right types of jobs to apply for.

Profiling for Success

This is an assessment tool which explores skills, interests, personality and learning styles. Use your Maynooth University email address to log in here: Profiling for Success. When you have completed the tests your report will be emailed to you.

Available Tests:

- Verbal Analogies (v1)
- Numerical Reasoning Tutorial Test (vA)
- Verbal Reasoning Tutorial Test (vA)
- Abstract Reasoning Tutorial Test (vA)
- Situational Judgement Tutorial Test (v1)
- Numerical Reasoning Practice (2019) (v3)
- Verbal Reasoning Practice (2019) (v3)
- Abstract Reasoning Practice (2019) (v3)
- Learning Styles Indicator (v1)
- Type Dynamics Indicator Form O (v1)
- Values-based Indicator of Motivation (v1)
- Career Interest Inventory (Dodec) (v1)

Situational Judgement Tutorial Test (SJTT)

This test presents you with a number of scenarios which might occur at work. For each scenario, there are a number of ways in which you could react and you have to choose the most appropriate way of handling the situation. At the end of the test, you can go back to review your answers and see what a panel of experts would judge to be the most appropriate response.

Take test

Learning Styles Indicator (LSI)

This questionnaire assesses your preferred learning style. It answers questions such as whether you prefer learning by seeing or by absorbing information and whether you prefer dealing with facts and details or taking a more intuitive and analytical approach.

Take test

Type Dynamics Indicator - TDI®

The TDI questionnaire helps you to discover how your preferences affect how you see the world, how you react and behave and what impact this may have on the world and people around you.

Take test

Resilience Scale Questionnaire (RSQ)

This questionnaire looks at how resilient you are? It identifies five key dimensions of resilience and shows you how you compare to others in respect of these dimensions. The report provides you with useful development suggestions for each area.

Take test

Values-based Indicator of Motivation (VbIM)

Can you articulate the things that matter most to you? This questionnaire helps you discover your underlying values - which are not always the ones you first thought of.

Take test

Career Interests Inventory – Dodec (CII-Dodec)

You can narrow your career search by identifying which of 12 themes you prefer. It then matches these against hundreds of jobs and the report takes you straight to a jobs database full of information.

Take test

Verbal Analogies Test (VAT-SA)

This test is a measure of verbal reasoning. It requires you to identify a relationship between two words or concepts and apply that logic to a second pair of words?

Take test

Numerical Reasoning Practice Test (NRP)

This test is a parallel version of tests used by employers to assess your ability to recognise, interpret and solve numerical problems. Your pdf report gives you your percentile against a large sample of UK University students.

Take test

Verbal Reasoning Practice Test (VRP)

This is a parallel version of tests used by employers to assess your ability to think logically and critically about written information. Your pdf report gives you your percentile against a large sample of UK University students.

Take test

Abstract Reasoning Practice Test (ARP)

This test is a parallel version of ones used by employers to assess your ability to generate multiple hypotheses and demonstrate mental flexibility using shapes. Your pdf report gives your percentile against a large sample of UK University students.
