Dr Tommaso Cremaschi (Trinity College Dublin)

Title: Big and small surfaces and Nielsen-Thurston Classification problems

Abstract:

We will give a short overview the Nielsen-Thurston Classification problem on finite-type surfaces and then move to the big setting and see what we know. The objective is to try and push some more geometric approaches to the classification that have not been widely touched in the infinite-type setting with some examples.