Webinar Invitation:

Collaboration as a strategy for promoting equity in education: possibilities and barriers

We are delighted to invite you to a talk by Professor Mel Ainscow. This presentation will draw on his extensive experience and research to provide guidance regarding the conditions that are needed in order to make collaboration work. It will focus on the major challenge facing education systems around the world, that of achieving equity. In so doing, it will start from the assumption that, under the right conditions, learner diversity can be a catalyst for educational improvement.

Attendees will be able to submit questions and comments during the address. These will be responded to by Professor Ainscow in the live Q&A session that follows. Please join us for this unique event on Tuesday 2nd March 5pm-6pm on TEAMS by registering here. A link will be sent to you by email to join the event.

Registration closes @ 10:00 pm on Friday 26th February 2021.
Please note registration is limited to the first 300 participants.
