

Title

Localization and symplectic resolutions

Abstract

The famous localization theorem of Beilinson and Bernstein is perhaps the seminal result in geometric representation theory, linking the study of the enveloping algebra of a semisimple Lie algebra to the geometry of the flag variety. We will review this theory and explain recent developments generalizing these results in the context of symplectic resolutions.