

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY WEEK

18-22 OCT.

Maynooth University
National University of Ireland Maynooth

Enhancing
Digital Teaching
and Learning
Irish Universities Association

MSU
Maynooth Students' Union
Aontas na Mac Léinn I'Mhá Nuad

EVENTS PROGRAMME

ALL WEEK

Contribute to Maynooth University's Virtual Academic Integrity Pledge Wall

What does Academic Integrity mean to you as a student or as member of staff at Maynooth University? Share your commitment to Academic Integrity via our virtual pledge wall. Once you have made your contribution, be sure to register for our prize draw to be in with a chance of winning one of two €50 book tokens.

All Week

For All

Padlet Link

View the Virtual Academic Integrity Wall and meet the EDTL Interns

The EDTL Interns will be in the MSU foyer during the week, and in the Library Foyer on 21 Oct. Come and chat to us about all things Academic Integrity, and to pick up some freebies!

All Week

For Students

Student Resources and Academic Integrity Quiz

Visit our Academic Integrity Hub on Moodle to learn more about Academic Integrity. You can also test your knowledge in our academic integrity quiz, to be in with the chance of winning one of two €50 book tokens.

All Week

For Students

Moodle Link

Assessment for Academic Integrity: Stories Through Practice

We know that there are many excellent examples of assessments that are designed to enhance Academic Integrity across Irish Higher Education. As part of the EDTL project, we are seeking to collate and share some of these exemplars. If you are interested in sharing a practical insight into assessment practice with the learning and teaching community, then please let us know.

All Week

For Staff

Submit

Join us on Instagram

Join the Maynooth EDTL Interns on Instagram where they will be sharing tips, insights and advice about all things Academic Integrity, including essay mills, contract cheating, citing and referencing, using Turnitin effectively, and where to go for help and advice.

All Week

For Students

Link

MON. 18 OCT.

Webinar: Developing a Shared Culture of Commitment to Academic Integrity: A Student-Staff Partnership Approach.

To mark the beginning of Academic Integrity Week 2021, staff and students from the Maynooth University EDTL team will discuss some of the work that they have conducted in respect of Academic Integrity over the past year. We will also share our plans for Academic Integrity Week 2021.

12.30-13.30

For All

Join

TUE. 19 OCT.

Webinar: Exploring the role of Tutors, Demonstrators, and Teaching Assistants in promoting academic integrity.

Facilitated discussion on the role and value of Tutors, Demonstrators, and Teaching Assistants in promoting and upholding Academic Integrity. Facilitated by Margaret Keane from the Centre for Teaching and Learning.

11.00-12.00

Tutors,
Demonstrators &
Teaching
Assistants

Register

Webinar: Using Reference Management Tools

An important component of Academic Integrity is the correct citation and acknowledgment of sources. To aid you in this process, Maynooth University provides the EndNote Reference management tool. In this workshop, Ciarán Quinn, Research Support Librarian, will provide an introduction to setting up and using EndNote.

12.00-13.00

For All

Register

WED. 20 OCT.

Webinar: Turnitin for Staff

This workshop will be delivered by Dave Martin, Virtual Learning Environment (VLE) Support Officer at Maynooth. Drawing on his experience of teaching on academic skills programmes and working as Support Officer in Moodle, he will discuss the following: Why use Turnitin for assessment?; Using Turnitin in Moodle to promote academic integrity; Setting up the Turnitin submission portal in Moodle; Looking at student similarity/originality percentages in Turnitin (What do they tell us?); and Directing students to their Turnitin Self-Check spaces to help develop their Academic Integrity.

 11.00-12.00
 For Staff
 Register

Webinar: Making the most of Turnitin: Top tips for Students

As a Maynooth University student you may be asked to submit assessments via Turnitin. This is an online system that staff and students can use to check pieces of writing for unclear referencing, citation issues, or potential instances of plagiarism. This workshop, delivered by Robyn Meyler, EDTL Student Intern, and Dr Morag Munro, EDTL Project Institutional Lead, will introduce you to the Turnitin software. You will learn how you can use the Turnitin self-check facility, as well as how to interpret Turnitin's similarity report.

 12.00-13.00
 For Students
 Register

Webinar: Positive Ways to Promote Academic Integrity: A Multi-Stakeholder Approach to Creating a Culture of Integrity

This National Forum seminar will explore ideas to build a shared culture of Academic Integrity with learners and those who teach/support teaching in partnership, drawing on some practical strategies and examples. A keynote will be delivered by Dr Sarah Eaton, University of Calgary.

 13.00-14.30
 For All
 Register

Webinar: International Day of Action Against Contract Cheating: Student IDoA Event

Join post-secondary students from around the globe to engage in marking the International Day of Action Against contract Cheating (IDoA).

 15:00-16:00
 For All
 Register

Webinar: International Day of Action Against Contract Cheating: IDoA Expert Presentation & Panel

Dr Thomas Lancaster will discuss the threats posed by contract cheating. Following his presentation there will be contributions from a global panel of Academic Integrity experts including: Sarah E. Eaton, Canada; Rowena Harper, Australia; Zeenath Khan, UAE and Billy Kelly, Ireland.

 16:00-17:00
 For All
 Register

THUR. 21 OCT.

Webinar: Students and Staff as Partners in Academic Integrity at Maynooth: Lessons Learned and Next Steps

Building on the contributions to our Academic Integrity Pledge Wall, students and staff participants will be supported to collaboratively reflect our collective learning from the week and will begin to identify future directions for promoting a shared commitment to Academic Integrity. Dr Alison Hood, Dean of Teaching and Learning, will close the event.

 13.00-14.00
 For All
 Register

Webinar: Designing Assessments to Promote Academic Integrity

In this workshop, Dr Adeline Cooney, Head of the Writing Centre, Dr Morag Munro, EDTL Project Institutional Lead, and Michaela Waters, EDTL Intern, will discuss some strategies for designing assessments that promote Academic Integrity.

 14.00-15.00
 For Staff
 Register

Webinar: Using Sources Wisely (or how not to accidentally plagiarise)

This workshop, delivered by Dr Adeline Cooney Head of the Writing Centre and Katharina Kurz, EDTL Intern, will discuss how to use sources in your writing.

 15.00-16.00
 For All
 Register

THUR. 28 OCT.

Workshop: Academic Integrity for MSU Academic Reps

This workshop, delivered by students and staff from the EDTL project team, will focus on how MSU Academic Reps can advise the students in their respective faculties regarding common challenges they may face, such as avoiding plagiarism and contract cheating.

 17:00-18.00
 For Student Reps
 To Reps via MSU