20 October 2011
Heather Montgomery, Open University
Rumours of child trafficking in the wake of natural disasters. Fact, fiction or fantasy?

27 October 2011
Dr A. Jamie Saris, NUIM
Addictions, Erections, and Reasonable People: How Research Becomes Evidence and Subjects are Co-created With Policy

10 November 2011
Luke Gibbons
Surrealism, Anthropology and Irish Modernism

17 November 2011
AAAs

24 November 2011
John Knight, QUB
What is human-animal sociality and where can we find it?

1 December 2011
Fiona Murphy, NUIM
The Jesus Walk: Placemaking and the Politics of Integration in a Border Town

8 December 2011
TIME: Wednesdays 6:15-8:30PM
VENUE: NORTH CAMPUS,

30 September 2011 (note day/venue change)
(Hosted with the Combat Diseases of Poverty Consortium)
Laurie Garrett, Council for Foreign Relations,
Title

19 October 2011
Heather Montgomery, Open University
Savages, Strangers or Subjects? Children within Social Anthropology

23 November 2011
John Knight, QUB
How monkeys were turned into a tourist attraction in postwar Japan

7 December