Speaker: Martin Kilian

Title: On finite gap curves

Abstract:

A curve in a 3-dimensional space form is a finite gap curve if it is stationary under some evolution in the self-focussing non-linear Schroedinger hierarchy. I will survey some recent results about such curves and will explain techniques from the theory of integrable systems for this setting.