

'Opening the Archive: A Door into Light'

the Pearse Hutchinson Archive at Maynooth University

Inaugural Conference 14 May 2015

Time	Speaker	Topic
9.00	n/a	Registration (tea/coffee available)
Session 1 Chair: Dr Ryan Molloy, Maynooth University Department of Music
9.30	President of Maynooth University, Professor Philip Nolan	Welcome
9.40	Macdara Woods	Introducing Pearse Hutchinson
9.50	Dr Philip Coleman, TCD	"This flaring loveliness of the fluent sea" : Pearse Hutchinson's early poetry
10.40	Prof. Eiléan Ní Chuilleanáin, TCD	"The soul that kissed the body" / "An tAnam a Phóg an Corp"
11.10	n/a	Tea/coffee
Session 2 Chair: Cathal McCauley, Maynooth University Librarian
11.25	Fiona Gault, Maynooth University	"In all this variety: Unity" : Bioegalitarian Intimacy, Rosi Bradotti's Nomadic Theory and Bracha Ettinger's Transconnectedness in the poetry of Pearse Hutchinson
11.55	Hugh Murphy and Ciara Joyce, Maynooth University	'The house that Pearse built: opening the Hutchinson Archive'
12.25	n/a	Viewing of the Pearse Hutchinson archive and buffet lunch
Session 3 Chair: Dr Moynagh Sullivan, Maynooth University Department of English, Media and Theatre Studies
1.30	Dr Ed Madden, University of South Carolina	Two young men: Identity and belonging in Pearse Hutchinson's Poetry
2.10	Dr Lucy Collins, UCD	Reading Nature in Pearse Hutchinson's Late Poetry
2.45	PJ Kavanagh and Vincent Woods	'unspilled at the angled brim' : P. J. Kavanagh in conversation with Vincent Woods
3.15	Panel Discussion	All speakers and Professor Melita Cataldi
4.00	Close	The archive will be available to view again until 5pm