PROGRAMMES OVERVIEW

www.maynoothuniversity.ie/applied-social-studies

The Department of Applied Social Studies (DAPPSS) in Maynooth University is the longest established provider of professional education and training in youth work and community work in the country.

More recently, the Department has developed a reputation for excellence in Social Policy studies.

OUR MISSION

“To promote human rights, social justice and equality, nationally and internationally, through excellence and innovation in education, research and public engagement that contribute to the development of the social professions and applied social sciences.”

Since the department was established in 1981, Applied Social Studies has earned an unrivalled reputation for teaching, research and development in these areas.

Professional programmes on a full-time and part-time in-service basis are offered at under-graduate (BSocSc) and post-graduate (MSocSc) levels, as well as a post-qualifying MA in Applied Social Studies (MAASS) and a Doctor of Social Science Programme (DSocSc).

The Department established Social Policy as a subject in Maynooth University and now offers both a Bachelor of Social Science (BSocSc, Hons) degree, and a Master of Social Science (MSocSc, Rights and Social Policy) in this discipline.

The Department is home to the Centre for Youth Research and Development and the Centre for Rights, Recognition and Redistribution.

The Department collaborates with a variety of organisations who sponsor specific NUI Certificate programmes, including youth work, community work, youth justice and youth arts for a range of groups around the country.
