

Maynooth Early Irish & Celtic Studies

Research Seminar

[Semester 2, 2017-18]

Thursday 15th February	Dr Bernhard Bauer (Maynooth) “Although we might not see it”: the interconnections between the Celtic glossed manuscripts of Bede’s De temporum ratione 5 p.m., John Hume Building, Lecture Theatre 4
Thursday 15th March	Dr Tomás Ó Carragáin (UCC) ‘Ecclesiastical landholding in early medieval Ireland: an archaeological perspective’ 5 p.m., John Hume Building, Lecture Theatre 4
Thursday 26th April	The Fourth Annual Paul Walsh Memorial Lecture Dr Aisling Byrne (Reading) ‘Translating Europe: imported narratives and Irish readers at the end of the Middle Ages’ 5 p.m., John Hume Building, Lecture Theatre 4
Thursday 24th May	Prof. Bernhard Maier (Tübingen) ‘From Ossian to Kaiser Wilhelm: the origins of Celtic Studies in 19 th -century Germany’ 5 p.m., Iontas Seminar Room 0.32
 Maynooth University National University of Ireland Maynooth	All welcome. Lectures are followed by a wine reception. For more information, contact: Dr Deborah Hayden, deborah.hayden@mu.ie