My Studentpad

MaynoothStudentpad is a site where you can search for private accommodation. It requires all students to create an account in order to use this site and access all the guides and information available which you will find useful in completing your search for accommodation.

Current Students

Current students should only use their Maynooth University email address. Ensure you enter the correct student email address. Your email address must be a valid student email account e.g. @nuim.com is not valid. Your email address must be a valid student email account. If you do not know or cannot remember your student email address then you can contact the Computer Centre HelpDesk. Maynooth Studentpad will automatically send you an email asking you to activate your account within 10 minutes once you have used a valid student email address.

Prospective/New Students

Prospective/New Students who do not yet have a nuim email address should read the information on the Accommodation Office website with regard to creating their account on this website and also information which will help with your search for accommodation via this link: <https://www.nuim.ie/accommodation/accommodation-private-sector/incoming-first-year-get-you-started>. There is also information on troubleshooting where you encounter difficulty with this software.

You can email us at accommodation.office@nuim.ie with any queries.

Here you will find other accommodation and transport information
