

YOUNG ECONOMIST(S) OF THE YEAR 2015 NATIONAL FINAL

YEOTY
Economist

Banking Micro
Economics Government
Choice
Utility
Supply
Circular Flow
Income Macro
Demand
Scarcity

Date	Time	Venue
Wednesday 18th March	11a.m.-2.00p.m.	John Hume Building Maynooth University

The Professional Development Service for Teachers (PDST) in association with Laois and Kilkenny Education Centres, Maynooth University and St. Angela's College is delighted to announce that the Young Economist(s) of the Year National Final for post-primary students will be held in Maynooth University on Wednesday March 18th 2015 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Programme

- Welcome address: Ciara O'Donnell National Director, PDST & Professor Rowena Pecchenino, Maynooth University.
- A short presentation on Behavioural Economics: Dr. Pete Lunn, ESRI.
- The benefits of participating in YEOTY: Last year's winners.
- Presentation of prizes: Caroline McHale, Jim Enright and Paul Fields.
- Finding, selecting and referencing information: Rachel Farrell, PDST.
- "Do's and dont's" for YEOTY 2016: Dr. Brian O'Boyle, St. Angela's, Sligo.
- Lunch in the Phoenix Restaurant.
- For further details please visit www.pdst.ie/youngeconomist