

The Maynooth University Experiential Learning Office advertises opportunities in line with the following policies:

- The Association of Higher Education Careers Services (AHECS)
- The Association of Graduate Careers Advisory Services (AGCAS)
- State legislation and policies in relation to employment practices, equality and wage rates

Opportunities Accepted:

- Summer, Micro or Research Internships
- Insight Day / Programme
- Competition / Challenge

Opportunities not accepted:

- Jobs that pay below the minimum wage
- Commission only
- Jobs advertised by a private individuals or household
- Jobs / roles that require students to make a financial investment
- Roles that are not legal, or not in keeping with the policies, aims and objectives of Maynooth University
- Jobs that present a risk to the health and or well-being of Maynooth University students and graduates

The Maynooth University Experiential Learning Office retains the right to edit adverts for reasons of clarity or brevity.

Recruitment Agencies:

Recruitment agencies can advertise relevant jobs with the Experiential Learning Office, where the name of the client company is released to the Experiential Learning Office, the client company names is not passed on to students but required for quality assurance reasons only.

Voluntary Work:

All voluntary work opportunities are managed on Student Volunteer, which is a third level national database for volunteering & student-led engagement opportunities. Visit the site <https://www.studentvolunteer.ie/maynooth> for further information and terms of use.